

Dear uncle,

I am your loving sponsored child
G. Dhanalakshmi writing this letter.

I am fine and doing well here.

I am doing my third year collage Studies

In DGNM. I am studying well. I am doing the mid-wifery course. It is Very interesting. I learn a lot.

I like this course very much. It gives me a lot of practical knowledge to me. I am really excited about it

I have also villages or community Nursing experience. I am going to a particular village for three months.

We take care of the patients there.

We also advice the village people some practical tips so that they can take care of themselves.

I am very much interested in this services to the village people.

As u know, I study at Our Lady school of Nursing in Dindigul. I have 15 classmates in this course. I would like to give you my marks in all the subjects.

Medical surgical I - 70%

Medical surgical II - 69%

Pediatric - 65%

Psychiatry - 79%

Practical - 80%

I have made lot of friends. They help me a lot. I also help my friends in their needs. We also go to a hospital and give a proper care to all New-born babies. I also provide a proper direction to the mothers regarding the proper care of themselves. I also engage in giving injection, IV and see blood sugar and pulses of the patients on the whole.

I am really happy about this course, I am able to study just because of your kind generosity towards my education. I take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude for all that you are doing in my life. I keep praying for your well-being and happiness.

Thankyou.

Your loving child
Sr. Dhana Lakshmi